

Bentley College
Waltham, Massachusetts

Tenure Track Assistant/Associate
Professor of Business Policy and Strategy and International Management

Starting Fall 2005

The Management Department at Bentley College near Boston, MA is currently recruiting for tenure track faculty at the Assistant or Associate level in Business Policy and Strategy and International Management starting in Fall 2005. With a strong faculty of teacher-scholars, Bentley strives to lead higher education in the integration of business education and information technology, offers curricula at the intersection of the arts and sciences and business that inspires creativity and broad vision, and provides an intellectually stimulating academic community for both faculty and students. Bentley supports its faculty as they pursue cutting-edge research and bring their expertise and real world experience into the classroom. Join us at the forefront of business education.

Candidates for this position should be dedicated to excellence in both scholarly research and teaching in the areas of business policy and strategic management with interests in the intersection policy and strategy and international management. Salary and teaching load are competitive. Candidates should have completed their doctoral degree and be able to demonstrate excellent research and teaching skills. Please send your letter of interest, vita and supporting materials electronically to geshghi@bentley.edu. not later than October 31, 2004.

Please contact Golpira Eshghi geshghi@bentley.edu if you are interested in learning more about the position and Bentley at the Stockholm meeting.

Bentley is an equal opportunity employer building strength through diversity.