

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Assistant Professor of International Business Department of Management Bowling Green State University

Bowling Green State University is seeking to fill a tenure track assistant professor position in International Business. A secondary interest in management or global strategy is desirable. Responsibilities include teaching undergraduate, graduate and executive courses, research and publication, service to the department, college, and university and professional societies appropriate to academic field, and advising students. Qualifications include an earned doctorate in business or related field with an emphasis in International Business. PhD in hand is preferred, but candidates with strong probability of completion by August 2005 will be considered. The ideal candidate will have demonstrated research and teaching in the area of International Business. Candidates will be evaluated on teaching and research performance, commensurate with academic experience. Position is full time starting in August 2005. Salary is competitive and commensurate with peer institution levels for rank and position and in keeping with candidate experience and credentials. Applications must be postmarked by November 15, 2004. Electronic and fax applications cannot be considered.

Bowling Green State University is a public, state-assisted residential university with an enrollment of approximately 20,200 students. The College of Business Administration is AACSB accredited and has an enrollment of approximately 2,300 undergraduates and over 400 graduate students in five graduate programs. More information about Bowling Green State University can be found at www.bgsu.edu.

Please send a letter of application, full curriculum vitae, three current and original letters of reference, and transcript(s) to:

Dr. Janet Hartley, Chair
Department of Management
College of Business Administration
Bowling Green State University
Bowling Green, OH 43403
(419) 372-2946
jhartle@cba.bgsu.edu
www.cba.bgsu.edu

Bowling Green State University is an AA/EEO employer and encourages applications from women, minorities, veterans and persons with disabilities.