

Position Announcement
Tenure-Track Faculty Position in International/Strategic Management
Department of Management
Kelley School of Business
Indiana University – Bloomington

Indiana University's Kelley School of Business invites applications and nominations for a tenure-track appointment in international business at the level of senior assistant or associate professor. The Kelley School of Business offers an excellent opportunity for individuals committed to conducting research and teaching in a supportive environment. Candidates must have a doctoral degree in international business or strategic management and an established record of research that includes multiple, international-focused publications in top-tier journals. Research productivity is expected and supported.

The Kelley School of Business offers doctoral, MBA and undergraduate degree programs. Kelley's MBA Program is ranked 8th in Management by Business Week and 14th in Management by U.S. News and World Report. U.S. News and World Report ranks Kelley's undergraduate program 4th in Management and 3rd among public universities. More information about the Kelley School of Business and the Department of Management can be found on our web site: www.kelley.iu.edu.

Applicants should provide a letter of application, a current curriculum vita, three letters of reference, examples of published and/or forthcoming research, and evidence of teaching effectiveness. Applications will be accepted beginning immediately and extend until the position is filled. Indiana University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and encourages applications from members of historically under-represented groups. POSITION AVAILABLE: August 2005.

The members of the search and screen committee are Prof. Catherine M. Dalton, chair, Prof. Jeffrey G. Covin, and Prof. Philip M. Podsakoff.

Applicants should write to the chair of the search and screen committee:

Prof. Catherine M. Dalton
David H. Jacobs Chair of Strategic Management
Kelley School of Business
Indiana University
1309 East Tenth Street
Bloomington, IN 47405-1701