

JOB OPENING FOR MARKETING PROFESSOR

Izmir University of Economics, Turkey, invites applications for 1 year contract-based Marketing professor. Teaching responsibilities for this position include teaching both undergraduate and MBA courses within the scope of marketing, research resulting in scholarly articles, advising undergraduate and/or graduate students, and service to the University, community, and profession.

The ideal candidate must hold a Ph.D. degree in marketing or be in process of obtaining one. Candidates holding any academic rank including assistant/ associate/ and full professor are encouraged to apply. Candidates for the position must demonstrate potential for teaching excellence. Industry experience is a plus.

Izmir University of Economics (IUE) is a foundation university of Turkey, located in Izmir, in the Aegean Region. The university is specialized on various disciplines such as business, logistics, textile and fashion. Detailed information about the university can be obtained from the university web site at www.iue.edu.tr.

Applicants should send a vita, statements of teaching and research interests, past syllabi and/or teaching evaluations no later than July 10th, 2004. All correspondences and completed applications should be mailed to:

Prof. Alev Katrinli
Department of Business Administration

Izmir University of Economics
Sakarya Caddesi No:156 Balcova Izmir
TURKEY

or sent via e-mail:
alev.katrinli@ieu.edu.tr

Starting date for the job is October 1st, 2004. The salary range is between 2,000 and 3,000 USD per month and the exact amount will be settled upon negotiation. The employee will also receive a research fund worth of 1,000 USD per annum.