

School of Business Administration

Assistant Professor of International Business/Marketing

Oakland University has a vacancy for a tenure-track Assistant Professor in International Business/Marketing beginning in August 2004. Applicants should have a Ph.D. with a major in International Business or Marketing. Applicants should be willing to teach international business and marketing (preferably consumer behavior) courses. Oakland University is a state-supported institution located in Rochester, Michigan, approximately 25 miles north of Detroit. The School of Business Administration is AACSB-accredited and the position offers research support, competitive salary and excellent fringe benefits. Interested candidates should submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, transcripts, three letters of reference, and evidence of teaching capability to Mohan Pisharodi, Chair, IB/Marketing Recruitment Committee, School of Business Administration, Oakland University, Rochester, MI, 48309-4493. Email: pisharod@oakland.edu or call (248) 370-3540. For more information, visit the website, www.sba.oakland.edu. Review of applications will continue until the position is filled. Oakland University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.