

Tenure-Track Position (Assistant/Associate) Professor
Management / International Business and Strategy
Old Dominion University

The Management area of the College of Business & Public Administration at Old Dominion University invites applications from qualified candidates for one (1) tenure-track position at the Assistant or Associate level in International Business with a secondary area in Strategic Management. Responsibilities include teaching (6-9 credit hours per semester), research resulting in scholarly articles, advising undergraduate and/or graduate students, and service to the University, community, and profession. Qualifications for the position at the Assistant Professor level are: (1) an earned doctorate in Business Administration from an AACSB accredited institution, with primary area of expertise in International Business; (2) evidence of effective teaching; (3) evidence of research potential. Preference will be given to candidates with refereed publications in the field and/or presentations at national and international conferences. Applicants seeking appointment at the Associate level must have an earned doctorate in International Business and a strong record of effective teaching and publications in professional journals.

Old Dominion University (ODU) is located in Norfolk, VA, about 200 miles southeast of Washington, D.C. Formerly a branch campus of the College of William & Mary, ODU became an independent member of the Commonwealth of Virginia's public university system in 1969. The University has since emerged as a major research institution, with research grants and contracts valued at $36 million annually; and teaching institution offering 66 baccalaureate programs, 67 master's programs, and 24 doctoral programs. With 603 full-time and 331 part-time faculty, ODU serves 13,578 undergraduates and 6,527 graduate students, with a student-to-faculty ratio of 16 to 1. The 188-acre main campus is located close to downtown Norfolk and the Norfolk Naval Station, the largest naval base in the world. Nearby Virginia Beach, the largest city in Virginia, has 36 miles of some of the best beaches on the Atlantic Ocean and Chesapeake Bay and is a major year-round tourist center on the East Coast. Located nearby are historic Jamestown, Yorktown, and Williamsburg.

The College of Business & Public Administration is fully accredited by AACSB -- The International Association for Management Education. The College enrolls more than 3,150 students in bachelor's, master's and doctoral programs. The College is located in the new Constant Hall and provides state-of-the-art instructional technology. Within the College, the Department of Business Administration offers a collegial and supportive environment.
