

2 Positions at the Schulich School of Business, York University, Toronto Canada

The Schulich School of Business' Policy/Strategic Management Area is searching for two candidates for tenure-track positions at the assistant level. Their training should be in strategic management with a focus on the range of sub-fields that trace their roots in Industrial Organization Economics. Ideally, we seek candidates who will be interested and qualified to teach one of our core courses in Strategic Management, as well as develop related electives.

The preferred candidates will be qualified to teach in PhD, Masters and Undergraduate programs, possess a completed doctorate, provide evidence of effective teaching, and have a commitment to scholarly research and publication.

Salary and benefits are competitive. These positions are subject to budgetary approval. York University is an Affirmative Action Employer. The Affirmative Action Program can be found on York's website www.yorku.ca/acadjobs or a copy can be obtained by calling the affirmative action office at 416-736-5713. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and Permanent Residents will be given priority.
