

The Fisher College of Business at The Ohio State University invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position to begin September 1, 2006, although we are happy to consider all ranks. The position is in the area of International Business, with a research preference in the areas of international management or international strategy. We prefer candidates with a completed Ph.D. or who have ABD status at an advanced stage of dissertation completion. Courses to be taught are both at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

Compensation will be competitive and will be commensurate with the candidate's qualifications and experience. Screening of applications will begin immediately, and will continue until the position is filled. Applicants should send a curriculum vita, three letters of recommendation, research papers or publications, and teaching evaluations to:
