

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS MANAGEMENT

Assistant/Associate Professors

School of Business Management

Ryerson University is known for innovative programs built on the integration of theoretical and relevant learning. Over 50 undergraduate and graduate programs are distinguished by a professionally focused curriculum and strong emphasis on excellence in teaching, research and creative activities. Ryerson is also a leader in adult learning, with the largest university based continuing education school in Canada.

We invite applications from junior and/or more experienced academics for two positions in the area of Management studies. The successful candidates will be expected to teach and conduct research, and participate in both the MBA (in the application/approval stage) and the undergraduate business programs. The successful candidates will work and provide leadership in a collaborative research environment on issues of interest related to Management and Strategy or Supply Chain Management. Interest in the global environment will be an asset. The successful candidates must have a relevant PhD. The individuals will share our vision and values, which include a commitment to our students, in-class excellence and a supportive, collegial work environment.

Applicants must submit their curriculum vitae, the names of three references, and a statement of specific research interest to this AIB website <http://aib.msu.edu/careercenter>, by June 27, 2005. Only candidates short listed for interviews at the AIB Conference in Quebec City, will be contacted. Queries can be addressed to:
