

Announcing A Visiting Faculty Position At Seoul National University

The College of Business Administration, Seoul National University is seeking a candidate to fill a visiting professorship position at all levels in the area of International Business and International Finance. The qualifications include established teaching and research records. Candidates should hold a doctoral degree. The successful candidate will teach at both the graduate and the undergraduate levels. Salary is highly competitive. The expected starting date is March 1 or September 1, 2006. The term of contract is one-year, but renewable up to three years.

The College of Business Administration, Seoul National University is a progressive and innovative management school with an international reputation for influencing the practice of management and leadership through quality teaching and research. The College has more than 1,500 full-time students currently enrolled in Bachelor's, Master's and PhD programs. With the AACSB accreditation received as the first institution in Korea and the fourth one in Asia, the College of Business Administration, Seoul National University expects its faculty members excellence in both research and teaching not just in Korea, but in Asia, and in the world.

The College of Business Administration, Seoul National University is located on modern campus surrounded by a mountain within the bustling city of Seoul, and just half an hour from downtown. With a population of over 10 million, Seoul is Korea's business, political and cultural center and enjoys a closely-knit community of major global corporations such as Samsung Electronics, Hyundai Motors, LG Electronics, SK Telecommunications, etc. This business environment provides a variety of research and consulting opportunities.

Professor Dong-Sung Cho will attend the AIB conference in Quebec City this July. He will meet applicants at the conference. Applicants should send a curriculum vita (C.V.) to Professor Dong-Sung Cho and set up an appointment with him by e-mail (cho@ips.or.kr).

For more information, please visit cba.snu.ac.kr or contact Professor Jaeyong Song (jsong@snu.ac.kr).