=====

Lingnan University is a distinctive liberal arts institution in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. It offers honours bachelor's degrees and postgraduate programmes up to the doctoral level.

The Department of Marketing and International Business invites applications for a tenure track Assistant/Associate Professor position starting in August, 2007. The rank and remuneration on the appointment will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. We offer competitive salary and benefits including housing allowance, passage, and gratuity.

The candidates should have a Ph.D degree in marketing, international business or a related field. The appointee will teach courses in marketing and international business, conduct research for publishing in reputable journals, and provide services to the University. Candidates must demonstrate teaching excellence and strong research potential or track records.

The Department has a collegial team of academics whose background and expertise cover a wide range of areas in marketing and international Business. Please visit the Department's webpage for our programmes and activities: <http://www.ln.edu.hk/mkt/>. Enquiries can be directed to Professor Geng Cui (gcui@Ln.edu.hk).

Please submit CV, teaching evaluations, letters of recommendation, and sample publications via email to mib@Ln.edu.hk or fax (852) 2467 3049. Screening of applicants will begin immediately and we consider applications until the position is filled. The Department will have representatives at the 2006 AIB Conference in Beijing, China to interview the candidates.
