

ENTREPRENEURSHIP & FAMILY BUSINESS

The Management and International Business Department at Florida International University's College of Business Administration invites applicants for two positions in Entrepreneurship and/or Family Business at the Professor, Associate Professor, or Assistant Professor levels. Candidates should have a demonstrated research and teaching interest in entrepreneurship and/or family business.

Required qualifications include: A Ph.D. in Business Administration or related field and the ability to teach undergraduate, masters, doctoral and executive education courses. Applicants should have documented ability to publish in premier journals within entrepreneurship and/or family business.

Florida International University, a member of the State University System of Florida, is Miami's only public, urban research university. It is a Carnegie I Research University with solid support from both the government and the business community. The University serves approximately 38,000 undergraduate and graduate students on several campuses in the diverse community of South Florida (please see <http://fiu.edu>). Florida International University is an Equal Access/Equal Opportunity Employer.

The College of Business Administration and particularly the International Business Programs at FIU are among the top 25 in the United States. The College of Business Administration houses three nationally recognized centers, namely the Center for International Business Education and Research (CIBER), the FIU Center for Leadership and the Eugenio Pino & Family Global Entrepreneurship Center (GEC).

The Eugenio Pino and Family Global Entrepreneurship Center at Florida International University, founded in 2003 with a multi-million dollar grant from the Kauffman Foundation, facilitates all entrepreneurial activities at FIU. The Center provides campus-wide awareness of entrepreneurship as an approach to life that enhances and transcends traditional academic experiences. The multi-dimensional nature of the Center with its four institutes and Academy, allow it to address the unique entrepreneurial needs of one of the nation's largest ethnically diverse academic institutions, located in Miami, one of America's most entrepreneurial and dynamic international cities. (please see <http://entrepreneurship.fiu.edu>).

Applicants should submit their packages before November 1, 2007 to: Dr. Carolina Gomez, Chair – Search Committee, Department of Management and International Business, College of Business Administration, Florida International University, University Park, RB 345B, Miami, FL 33199, USA.