

Anticipated Position
The University of Akron

Assistant /Associate Professor /Professor
International Management

The Department of Management of the College of Business Administration at the University of Akron invites applications for an anticipated Fall 2008 start tenure track position (Assistant/Associate/Professor). The successful candidate will have an earned Ph.D. (or ABD near degree completion) in International Management or related fields, and demonstrate a strong record of, or potential for, high quality research and teaching in this area. Business experience is preferred and a secondary background in strategy, healthcare, or technology commercialization is a plus.

The Institute for Global Business (IGB) in the College of Business Administration (CBA) is the premier center for international business expertise in Northeast Ohio and offers a variety of International Business related programs, including an undergraduate major, minor, and certificate program and a Master of Business Administration in International Business. The Department of Management has 20 full time faculty and serves about 1600 undergraduate and 400 graduate majors in the CBA. The CBA is one of the largest AACSB accredited institutions in the area and has been recognized by the Princeton Review as having one of the best MBA programs. With a new Dean, the CBA is newly re-committed to teaching, scholarly, and service excellence. The University of Akron has approximately 23,000 students from 41 U.S. states and 68 countries and is ranked at the highest level as a comprehensive, doctoral-degree granting institution.
