

Tenure-track Position in International Business Yonsei School of Business, Yonsei University

Yonsei School of Business invites application for a tenure-track faculty position in the area of International Business, available Spring 2009 or after.

Job Description and Qualification: The tenure-track faculty will teach two courses per semester in the area of International Business. The new faculty is expected to teach general international business courses, such as international business environment, international strategic management, and/or international marketing. Expertise in teaching specialized courses such as Asian Management, Chinese Management, International Human Resources, etc. will be a plus. The successful candidate should demonstrate outstanding research potential and excellent teaching capabilities. Applicants should have a doctorate in business administration or related field and at least one year of research or teaching experience after completion of doctoral degree. Faculty rank is open depending on qualifications. Salary will be competitive and commensurate with qualification and experience.

About the School: As the best private university in Korea, Yonsei has a spacious and well-wooded campus located just 20 minutes away from the economic, political, and cultural centers of the Seoul metropolitan area (<http://www.yonsei.ac.kr/eng/>). Yonsei School of Business has been leading the business programs in Korea by offering the nation's first undergraduate commerce program in 1919 (<http://cob.yonsei.ac.kr/en/main/>), first MBA program in 1965, and first full-time English MBA program in 1998 (<http://gsb.yonsei.ac.kr/>). The school has 65 full-time faculty and more than 1000 undergraduate, MS/PhD, and MBA students graduate from the school every year.

Application Procedure: Interested candidates are requested to send their application with curriculum vitae, to one of the following Yonsei faculty members. Professor Yong Suhk Pak will attend the Academy of International Business Conference in Milan, Italy, and Academy of Management Conference in Anaheim, California, USA. As a representative of Yonsei Business School, he will conduct job interviews with the applicants at those conferences. Applicants planning to attend any of these two conferences are requested to contact Professor Pak to make interview arrangements beforehand.
