

Discipline of International Business Faculty of Economics and Business The University of Sydney, Australia

Lecturer in International Business (2 positions)

The Faculty of Economics and Business is seeking to make two appointments at Lecturer level in any major area of international business.

About the University The University of Sydney, founded in 1850, is Australia's first university, and has an international reputation for outstanding teaching, as a centre of research excellence and as an active and engaged community leader. The newly established Discipline of International Business offers programs designed to provide students with knowledge and skills relevant to the development, strategy and management of international business organizations and the institutional context for their development, growth and operation.

Essential criteria for a lecturer position: the successful applicant must have a Bachelor's degree with honours or Master's degree by research in international business or related field and significant progress towards a PhD; evidence of high quality teaching; demonstrated ability to achieve research outcomes with refereed publications; an active research program with significant potential for future publication; expertise in one or more of the major areas of international business including multinationals and foreign investment, international business strategy, and cross-cultural management; and evidence of successful teamwork and a collegial approach.

Desirable criteria: experience in industry/profession especially internationally.

The positions are full-time continuing subject to the completion of a satisfactory probation and confirmation period for new appointees. Membership of a University approved superannuation scheme is a condition of employment for new appointees.

Anticipated Starting date is January 2009

Representative at the AIB Meeting in Milan:

Specific enquiries about the positions can be directed to Professor Sid Gray, on +61 2 9351 3552 or e-mail: s.gray@econ.usyd.edu.au

Remuneration package for Lecturer: $86,731 - $102,933 p.a. (which includes a base salary Lecturer Level B $73,289 - $87,030 p.a., leave loading and up to 17% employer's contribution to superannuation)

A salary supplement will be negotiated with the successful applicants.

Closing: Friday, 18th July 2008

For more information or to apply online, please visit <http://positions.usyd.edu.au> and search by reference number Specific enquiries about the positions can be directed to Professor Sid Gray on +61 2 9351 3552 or e-mail: s.gray@econ.usyd.edu.au .