

HEC Montréal: Postes en Affaires Internationales - Faculty Positions in International Business

Le service d'enseignement des Affaires Internationales d'HEC Montréal recherche des candidats spécialisés en marketing international, en gestion financière internationale, en géopolitique des affaires internationales ou en développement des pays émergents. Nous désirons combler nos postes pour Juin 2010.

The department of International Business of HEC Montréal invites applications in the fields of international marketing, international financial management, geopolitics and business or emerging economies. We are looking to fill tenured or tenure track positions starting in June 2010.

Job Qualifications: Candidates should hold or have completed by the end of December 2009 a doctorate with a strong major in international business. Candidates for associate or full professor should have an established record of quality research and teaching, while candidates for assistant professor should be promising scholars. We may consider exceptional candidates in other international business application fields. Successful candidates will be expected to publish research in major journals and to teach high-quality graduate and undergraduate courses.

About the School: Founded in 1907 and affiliated to Université de Montréal, HEC Montréal (www.hec.ca) is one of the oldest business schools in North America. It offers over 30 programs in management studies from BBA to Ph.D., taught by over 230 professors. Its MBA program is highly ranked among non-US business school world-wide by Business Week and Forbes, and it is the only business school in North America to be accredited by the AACSB, EQUIS and AMBA.

Les cours à HEC Montréal sont principalement enseignés en français bien que nous offrons un certain nombre de cours en anglais et en espagnol. Our inception program provides support to learn French in order to become totally fluent within two years. Teaching and research facilities are excellent. Research publication is financially rewarded.

To Arrange an Interview at the AIB meeting in San Diego: The department will be represented on-site by Professor Jean-Claude Cosset. To schedule an interview, candidates are required to send electronically full curriculum vitae and work samples to both jean-claude.cosset@hec.ca and alain.noel@hec.ca at the latest one week prior to the Conference.

Those not attending the AIB meeting are asked to e-mail a cover letter, detailed curriculum vitae, a sample of three scholarly work (including at least one full paper) and arrange to have three letters of reference sent to Professor Noël at the following address, before August 15, 2009.
