

NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY
FORT LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA

ANNOUNCEMENT OF NEW FACULTY POSITIONS

The H. Wayne Huizenga School of Business and Entrepreneurship at Nova Southeastern University invites applications for faculty positions in International Business. All ranks will be considered for appointments, although applicants for Assistant Professor Rank are of particular interest. Salary is market competitive and commensurate with qualifications and experience. Responsibilities include innovative and cutting edge teaching in areas consistent with the candidate's interests, functional expertise, and program needs. Candidates should be engaged in active scholarship, consistent with their career stage, and interested in working with current Nova IB faculty members. The Huizenga School is expanding its faculty and student base and this presents an exciting opportunity for faculty to grow with the school. As always, some service is expected for all faculty. Faculty members recruited for IB will primarily be teaching in the undergraduate minor in IB and in the master of international business administration program, as well as other master's programs as appropriate. HSBE has approximately 4,000 students at the undergraduate, masters and doctoral levels, programs can be viewed at www.huizenga.nova.edu. Candidates must have a Ph.D. or D.B.A., and have demonstrated evidence of outstanding research and teaching potential in their fields. Professional business experience is a plus.
