

Post Doc Research Positions in International Business

The Department of Business Studies at Uppsala University invites applications for post doctoral research positions in international business [IB]. The positions will be effective Fall 2009. There are no teaching or administrative responsibilities, but some degree of participation in the undergraduate and the doctoral programme can be offered.

Qualifications: Candidates must possess a doctoral degree in international business or closely related fields received after January 2006 but no later than July 2009. The successful candidates must demonstrate a strong commitment to scholarly research and publishing. They are also expected to actively engage in research seminars and similar activities at the Department of Business Studies.

The International Business Group and the Department of Business Studies (www.fek.uu.se): The IB research field has a long tradition in the department and cooperative contacts with other universities are frequent. Currently there are about fifteen members of IB group. The Department of Business Studies is an active research and teaching department with a full scale graduate program. It has about 140 employees.

The University: Uppsala University (www.uu.se) was founded in 1477 and is the oldest university in the Nordic countries. It enrolls about 20,000 students and 4,000 are graduated every year.

Contact and Application procedure: Interested candidates should send an Email including their Curriculum Vitae, a one page statement of research interests, copy of maximum three key publications, and letters of reference to: Assistant Professor Francesco Ciabuschi (francesco.ciabuschi@fek.uu.se). Deadline for application is June 15th. Short listed candidates will be invited for an interview during the AIB meeting in San Diego (27 -30 June 2009) - Candidates not attending the meeting will be interviewed at other occasions.