BROCK UNIVERSITY invites applications for a probationary tenure-track position in International Business at the assistant or associate professor level, starting July 1, 2007 (subject to final budgetary approval). The Faculty of Business at Brock University provides a very supportive research environment. Teaching loads are 2+2 per year with the opportunity of reduction for research performance.

Qualifications include a PhD (completed or near completion) and a commitment to excellence in research and teaching. Position level and salary are commensurate with the applicant’s qualifications. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply, however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Brock University is committed to a positive action policy aimed at reducing gender imbalance. Qualified women candidates are especially encouraged to apply.

Interested applicants who will be attending the 2006 AIB Annual Conference in Beijing are encouraged to contact Dr. Sheng Deng (e-mail: sdeng@brocku.ca) to schedule an interview time.

Brock University is located in the scenic Niagara peninsula, minutes from New York State and a one-hour drive from Toronto. A stable manufacturing base in addition to expanding sectors such as wine-making, tourism and horticulture provides for a dynamic high growth area with an exceptional range of professional and recreational opportunities.

Accredited by AACSB International, the Faculty of Business offers a number of Undergraduate and Masters degree programs, including an MBA, Masters of Accountancy (MAcc), Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA), and a Bachelor of Accounting (BAcc). The undergraduate programs each have a co-op option, and a proposal for a Master of Science (M.Sc.) program is currently under review. There are approximately 2200 undergraduate and 250 graduate students.

The competition will remain open until the position is filled. Please submit applications including curriculum vitae and the names and addresses of three referees, a recent working paper and student evaluations (if available) to:
