

Thunderbird School of Global Management has an opening for a position in Strategic Management. The candidate we seek will have a PhD in strategic management and demonstrated evidence of superior teaching abilities in MBA, EMBA programs and ideally in custom executive education programs as well. Our strong preference is for a candidate with a solid track record of full-time teaching experience and business experience, especially the ability to relate to executive audiences. We will not entertain applications from candidates who are recent graduates or lacking in MBA/EMBA level teaching experience.

Thunderbird, a top-ranked International Business graduate program, is a private, nonprofit graduate school with over 1,000 full-time students. Located in Glendale, Arizona, Thunderbird also has operations and programs in locations around the world, including Geneva, Moscow, Prague, and China. In addition to MBA and EMBA teaching assignments, we offer opportunities to teach abroad and to teach in our Executive Education program, one of the top ranked in the world. The Management faculty includes David Bowen, Andrew Inkpen, Mansour Javidan, Christine Pearson, Kannan Ramaswamy, Caren Siehl, Mary Sully de Luque, Mary Teagarden and Nathan Washburn.

Applicants must submit a current vita, plus evidence of scholarly research and excellent teaching capability. The search will remain open until the position is filled. For more information or to submit applications contact:

Dr. Andrew Inkpen (andrew.inkpen@thunderbird.edu), Dr. Kannan Ramaswamy (kannan.ramaswamy@thunderbird.edu) or Dr. Mary Teagarden (mary.teagarden@thunderbird.edu)

Thunderbird will be at the AIB and the Academy of Management meetings this summer for informational interviews.
