ASSISTANT/ASSOCIATE/FULL PROFESSOR OF INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

The Bill Greehey School of Business, St. Mary’s University, is seeking to fill a tenure-track position in International Business at the assistant/associate/full professor level. Discipline expertise in international marketing and global market assessment is desired. Additional expertise in other area(s) of international business, such as emerging Asian markets, is a plus. Candidates are required to hold a PhD or DBA from an AACSB-accredited institution. All candidates will be expected to demonstrate the ability to: (1) bring excellence and innovation into the classroom, (2) maintain a strong and continuing record of scholarship consistent with the teacher-scholar model, and (3) possess attributes leading to successful professional service, internal and external. Salary and benefits are competitive.

Founded in 1923, the Bill Greehey School of Business is accredited by AACSB International and is home to 31 faculty, 600 undergraduate students, and 100 graduate students. The School was recently re-named in honor of Bill Greehey, who in December 2005 donated $25 million to it, primarily to be used for student scholarships and faculty support. The School has three undergraduate departments: Accounting, Finance & Quantitative Methods, and Management. Graduate degrees for the Master of Business Administration (MBA) and Master of Business Administration/Doctor of Jurisprudence (MBA/JD) are available.

St. Mary’s University was founded in 1852 as an independent Catholic university shaped by the rich tradition of the Society of Mary (Marianists). Located in San Antonio, Texas, the University has an enrollment of more than 4,000 students and maintains small class sizes, with a student-faculty ratio of 13-to-1. There are three undergraduate schools, a graduate school, and a school of law. It strives for a diverse academic community of faculty, staff, and students of varying religious and cultural backgrounds. Additional information can be found at www.stmarytx.edu.

Review of applications will begin on May 1, 2008 and continue until the position is filled. The position start date may be as early as August 2008, depending upon the availability of the selected applicant. Interested candidates should send to the address below a complete packet containing a letter of application, evidence of teaching effectiveness, a current résumé/vita, and contact information for three references. St. Mary’s University is an Equal Employment Opportunity employer.

Dr. Jim Welch, Interim Dean of the Bill Greehey School of Business, will be present at the AIB Conference in Milan from June 30 – July 2, 2008. Please contact Dr. Welch at owelch@stmarytx.edu to schedule an interview at the conference.

Dr. Margaret Langford, Chair
Department of Management
Bill Greehey School of Business
St. Mary’s University
One Camino Santa Maria
San Antonio, TX 78228-8607
mlangford@stmarytx.edu