Higher School of Economics, Moscow, Russia

The Higher School of Economics (HSE) invites applications for the position of Assistant Professor in International Management or International Business. Priority will be given to applicants with a specialization in Strategic Management, Business Policy and Strategy, and Marketing. Applications for Associate and Full Professorships will also be considered.

The HSE is a major Russian university which aspires to become an internationally recognized research university. The HSE is the only Russian university in the social sciences to receive the status of a “National Research University” in 2009 by the Russian federal government. The candidate would be expected to participate in the research activities of the university’s Centre for Advanced Studies – a collaborative endeavor with Moscow’s New Economic School. The appointments are for permanent positions and will be made for three years in the first instance, starting in September 2012, with reviews of teaching and research at the end of the third year.

JOB QUALIFICATIONS:
Candidates must possess a Ph.D. in a field of management, economics, or related discipline. All degree requirements must be complete at the commencement of the appointment. The degree must be from a taught Ph.D. program with a strong research orientation.

Priority will be given to those candidates with a proven ability to conduct high-level research. Applicants with experience of teaching advanced courses for graduate students are especially welcomed.

EXPECTATIONS:
The successful applicant will be expected to publish scholarly research in high quality academic journals, demonstrate superior teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels, and advise bachelor and master students.

The salary range has been set at 150,000 to 200,000 rubles per month for a 12 month contract. Exceptional candidates will be considered for a higher position and salary. Additionally, travel support, individual and joint research grants can be provided.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE:
Review of applications will be ongoing and will continue until the position is filled. A representative of the university will be attending the Academy of International Business 2011 Annual Conference in Nagoya, Japan. Please submit your materials by June 20, 2011 if you wish to be considered for an informational interview at the AIB conference.

Applicants should provide their CV, at least 2 letters of reference, a statement of research interest and job market paper. All materials, and any questions, should be addressed to Alexander Settles, Professor, Faculty of Management at asettles@hse.ru.
