Saint Mary’s College of California anticipates an opening of a full-time tenure track Assistant or Associate Professor of International Business position, beginning fall 2012, pending budgetary approval.

Responsibilities
The new faculty member will be able to teach required and elective international business courses at both undergraduate and graduate levels. Teaching assignments at Saint Mary’s College of California include courses at off-site locations in San Francisco, Silicon Valley and San Ramon. Research responsibilities include developing an active research program on cutting-edge international business issues and their relationships with society, environment or Asia business. In addition to teaching and research, all faculty members have responsibilities for advising students and serving on committees and are expected to contribute to the mission of the College, which is informed, animated and expressed through its Catholic, Lasallian and Liberal Arts traditions.

Qualifications
Candidates must have an earned doctorate in international business or a closely related field, before commencing his or her academic appointment. Candidates must demonstrate a track record or potential for teaching excellence, scholarly research and publication in the field; ability to teach, advise and mentor a culturally and educationally diverse student body; appreciation of and deep respect for the learning/teaching environment and for the students, staff, and faculty who comprise it and the willingness to become a stakeholder in the Lasallian commitment to that environment; demonstrated commitment and success working in a diverse and multicultural community.

Salary & Benefits
Salary is competitive with other non-profit higher education institutions and commensurate with qualifications, experience, budget and internal equity considerations. Rank and placement will be determined by demonstrated evidence of teaching, research, and scholarship. Excellent benefits package, including health, dental, vision, life and long-term disability insurance, is available to eligible faculty and their dependents.

To Apply
Candidates should submit a letter of application; a complete and current vita; and as available, graduate transcripts; student evaluations, copies of publications; and four academic references. Candidates who submit names of references should expect that references will be contacted, in confidence, by the College and that credentials will be confirmed prior to hire. Candidates who become finalists will be expected to sign a consent authorizing a broader inquiry. Please submit application materials, nomination and inquiries to: Professor Yung Jae Lee, Chair of Search Committee at ylee@stmarys-ca.edu. All applicants shall also submit their applications online at www.stmarys-ca.edu.

Deadline
Consideration and review of applications will begin on June 15, 2011 and continue until filled. Application materials, nominations and inquiries will be held in strictest confidence.
