Assistant Professor Positions at the Department of Strategic Management and Globalization, Copenhagen Business School

The Department of Strategic Management and Globalization (SMG) at the Copenhagen Business School (CBS) is hiring two assistant professors in strategic and international management. The assistant professorships are four-year tenure-track positions with research and teaching obligations. The starting date of the appointment is negotiable, but expected to be sometime during early Fall 2012.

Copenhagen Business School has 18,000+ students, an annual intake of app. 1,000 international exchange students, and more than 500 full-time researchers, making it one of the largest business schools in the world.

SMG has an international and highly productive research culture, and is a European research stronghold in the two closely related fields of strategic and international management. Faculty has recently published in leading journals such as Academy of Management Journal, Academy of Management Review, Organization Science, Journal of Economic Geography, Strategic Management Journal, Journal of Management Studies, Journal of Product Innovation Management, Strategic Management Journal, and many other journals.

Candidates should hold, or be close to completing, a PhD from an accredited institution. They should have a strong research record or potential in the fields of strategic and international management, and be highly skilled in empirical analysis. Teaching experience and an interest in developing courses and study programs is expected.

The positions are announced at http://www.cbs.dk/en/About-CBS-Campus/Employment-at-CBS/Vacant-positions

For further info you can approach Professor, Head of Department Nicolai J Foss, nfl.smg@cbs.dk or Professor Torben Pedersen, tp.smg@cbs.dk

Selected candidates will be invited to give a job talk at SMG in the early Fall of 2012.
