Texas A&M University at Galveston (TAMUG) seeks a non-tenure track Instructional Assistant Professor of Maritime (Business) Administration to teach undergraduate and possibly graduate courses in economics and statistics. The appointee will also engage in student advising and university service. This is a full-time, nine month renewable position. The anticipated start date is the Fall 2012 Semester. Texas A&M University at Galveston is the Marine and Maritime Branch of Texas A&M University. The Department of Maritime Administration focuses on the business of shipping, port management and logistics.

Minimum qualifications include a Masters in Economics, evidence of teaching effectiveness and two plus years of classroom teaching experience in a university and/or college setting. Preference will be given to applicants with a Ph.D. in economics with background in the maritime industry and five or more years of university and/or college teaching experience. Applications should be received by August 20, 2012 for full consideration. To apply, complete an application for employment at http://www.tamug.edu/hrd/LinksAndForms/TAMUG Application for Employment.pdf, send application, a letter of interest that includes a statement of teaching philosophy, a curriculum vitae, transcripts, and a list of at least three references with addresses and telephone numbers to: Chair of Maritime Administration Search Committee, Department of Human Resource, Texas A&M University at Galveston, P. O. Box 1675, Galveston, TX 77553 or email them to hr@tamug.edu. Filling this position is dependent upon available funding in the budget. Employment is contingent upon successful completion of a background check. Texas A&M University at Galveston is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer committed to Diversity.