Saint Louis University (www.slu.edu) is a Catholic Jesuit institution dedicated to student learning, research, health care, and service. The University fosters the intellectual and character development of more than 8,800 undergraduate students and 5,100 graduate students (including medical and law students) from all 50 states and nearly 70 countries. With campuses in St. Louis, Missouri, and Madrid, Spain, Saint Louis University was founded in 1818, making it the oldest university west of the Mississippi and the second oldest Jesuit university in the United States. We offer nearly 100 undergraduate programs and more than 70 graduate programs, and excel in athletics as part of the Atlantic 10 Conference and as NCAA Division I in 18 sports including baseball, basketball, cross country, field hockey, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, tennis, track and field, and volleyball. Through teaching, research, health care and community service, Saint Louis University is the place where knowledge touches lives.

The John Cook School of Business (business.slu.edu) supports 1,452 undergraduate and 400 graduate students. It is fully accredited by the AACSB. International Business degrees are offered at the bachelor, MBA, and Ph.D. levels. The Boeing Institute of International Business (biib.slu.edu) also offers an Executive Master of International Business program, plus numerous professional events such as an annual conference and awards ceremony. Our International Business programs are ranked in the top 20 in the nation by U.S. News & World Report.

Starting Date: The 2013/2014 academic year or the 2014/2015 academic year, contingent upon budget approval.
