The Sheldon B. Lubar School of Business at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee invites outstanding scholars to apply for the Sheldon B. Lubar Professorship at the rank of Associate or Full Professor. This endowed chair is open to top scholars in the areas of Management, Supply Chain/Operations Management, Information Technology Management, or Accounting.

The qualified candidate will hold a Ph.D. appropriate to their teaching and research area. Required qualifications also include an outstanding research record, evidence of teaching excellence, and demonstrated ability to work collegially and collaboratively within the university and the business community. Preference will be given to candidates who are nationally and internationally recognized for leadership in their area of research. The Lubar Professor's primary responsibilities will be to provide outstanding leadership, research, and teaching on both degree and executive programs, guide doctoral students, as well as cultivate and maintain effective linkages to the business community.

The University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee is Doctoral/Research extensive and a premier public urban university offering a comprehensive liberal arts and professional education at the undergraduate and graduate levels. UWM takes pride in being a student-centered institution that is deeply committed to academic excellence and diversity in its student body, faculty, and staff and is supportive of dual career faculty situations. The Sheldon B. Lubar School of Business is located on UWM’s main 93-acre campus on Milwaukee’s premier Upper East Side, one of the city’s most attractive residential areas on the shore of Lake Michigan with easy proximity to major league sports, entertainment, culture, and dining. The Sheldon B. Lubar School of Business has been continuously accredited by AACSB International since 1970 and is recognized in the UT-Dallas Top 100 Business School Research Rankings, Businessweek part-time MBA rankings, and U.S. News & World Report Best Undergraduate Business Programs. It offers BBA, MBA, Executive MBA, MS and Ph.D. degree programs. With doctorates and advanced training from some of the country’s leading universities, the Lubar School’s 70+ full-time faculty bring an impressive range of expertise to the School. Lubar Hall is technologically sophisticated using cutting-edge multimedia in the classroom to enhance the learning experience of its students with the use of TurningPoint’s polling, Smartboard interactivity, and Mediasite’s lecture capture. Further information can be found at www.uwm.edu and www.lubar.uwm.edu

Candidates seeking consideration must apply at http://jobs.uwm.edu/postings/24875 and submit application materials electronically to include: cover letter; curriculum vitae describing educational background, research, work experience, publications, along with a list of courses taught, a statement of teaching and research interest, and teaching evaluations. Also provide a list of three references with contact information including postal and email addresses and telephone numbers with your application.

The University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee is an AA/EEO employer committed to increasing diversity in recruitment and retention and advancing our University as an inclusive campus. Under Wisconsin’s open records law, request for confidentiality will be honored, except that the names and titles of all finalists must be disclosed upon request. All finalists for this position will require a criminal records review consistent with the Wisconsin Fair Employment Act. For information relating to the UWM Campus Security Report, see www.cleryact.uwm.edu or contact the Office of Student Life at (414) 229-4632 for a paper copy.

Questions about this position should be directed to the Lubar Professor Search Committee, Co-Chair Professor Margaret Shaffer who will be attending the AIB conference (414-229-4544 / shafferm@uwm.edu) or Co-Chair Professor Paul Fischer (414-229-4545 / pfischer@uwm.edu).