Southwestern University of Finance and Economics

Chengdu, P.R. China

Job Opportunities: Assistant, Associate, and full Professor

Applications are invited for a number of positions at the assistant, associate, and full professor level at the School of International Business, Southwestern University of Finance and Economics, Chengdu, People’s Republic of China.

The School of International Business (SIB) offers two majors: International Business and International Economics. The school has more than 40 full-time academic staff including 10 professors, 16 associate professors, and 16 assistant professors. Over 1,200 undergraduate students, 200 postgraduates of Master and PhD degree candidates are learning at SIB, including 40 international students from all over the world.

Tenure-track positions are available at all levels in these fields: international business, finance, accounting, human resource, strategy management, and other related fields of management.

Competitive salary starts with 200,000~240,000 RMB per year for assistant professor, and 300,000 for associate professor. We also provide a considerable research starting fund.

Applicants can send the informal enquiries to Dr Jian Lu (逯健) (Assistant Dean, School of International Business, SWUFE); Email: lambert@swufe.edu.cn.

Application should include CV, three reference letters, cover letter indicating the position (assistant, associate, or full professor) and samples of publications or working papers. Application materials should be forwarded to

Ms. XU Wenqiong(徐文琼)(School of International Business, SWUFE); Tel: 0086 2887092426; Email: xuwq@swufe.edu.cn. or

Ms. MIAO Fang (缪芳)(Personnel Department, SWUFE); Tel: 0086 2887092298; Email: szk@swufe.edu.cn.

To be considered for interviews at the AIB meetings in New Orleans, Louisiana in June, 2016, applicants should apply through emails by June 20, 2016. Your friendly visit is also absolutely welcome, and we hope to have a chance to meet you in Chengdu.