CEIBS invites applications for senior faculty positions in Strategic Management

The China Europe International Business School (CEIBS) invites applications for Associate Professor (with at least 3 years post-tenure experience) or Full Professor positions in strategic management. Successful applicants are expected to teach related courses to MBA and EMBA students, executive education program participants, and to be active in scholarly activities.

The applicants must meet the following qualifications: (1) hold doctorate in related fields, (2) have published in top-tier academic journals, and (3) have a strong commitment to teaching excellence.

Compensation is internationally competitive and commensurate with qualifications. To apply, please send your cover letter, curriculum vitae, three recommendation letters, samples of published or working papers, and recent teaching evaluations to Ms. Daisy Li of the Dean's Office at ldaisy@ceibs.edu. Applications are accepted throughout the year until the positions are filled.

Faculty in the Strategy and Entrepreneurship department include Sam Seung Ho Park, Klaus Meyer, Neng Liang, Ramakrishna Velamuri, Terence Tsai, Peter Moran, Weiru Chen, Daniel Chng, Shameen Prashantham, Yu Zhang, Yan Gong, Jeff Sampler, and Vincent Chang. They have published in top management journals, including Academy of Management Journal, Academy of Management Review, Strategic Management Journal, Organization Science, Management Science, and Journal of International Business Studies.

Faculty from the department will be happy to meet applicants during the coming AIB, AOM, and SMS annual conference.
