FACULTY POSITION DESCRIPTION:

LOYOLA MARYMOUNT UNIVERSITY, Los Angeles, CA

Assistant/Associate Professor of Management with a focus on Strategic Management or International Business, and a secondary interest in the other of these.

Applications are invited for a tenure-track position in Management at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor. Prior teaching and, especially, industry experience are valued. Opportunities exist for summer research grants, additional teaching income (e.g., executive education and summer school), underwritten travel to professional conferences, and other international travel. At the Assistant level, a Ph.D. or DBA in Management or a related area is required along with evidence of teaching effectiveness and research potential. At the Associate level, candidates also should have a record of successful research and publication. While the appointment involves teaching at both the undergraduate and MBA levels, candidates with an interest and/or prior experience in executive education (e.g. our EMBA program) are encouraged to apply. All employees, as well as candidates for this position, must show employment eligibility verification as required by the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Position Available: August 2017

Salary: Competitive
