Assistant or Associate Professor of Marketing and International Business

University of Puget Sound, School of Business and Leadership

Full-time, tenure-line position; begins Fall Term 2004. Teach introductory and advanced undergraduate courses in marketing and international business. Courses will include a combination of the following: principles of marketing, international marketing, international business, and an integrative senior seminar. Case analysis and/or other projects that stimulate analytical thinking and promote effective writing skills should be an important component of these classes. Standard teaching assignment is three courses per semester. Continue professional development, advise students, and participate in departmental and University governance. Ph.D. in Marketing, International Business, or appropriate related discipline (ABD considered if completion is anticipated within a year), and commitment to undergraduate teaching, liberal arts education, and scholarly growth. Relevant teaching and professional experience in marketing and international business preferred. To apply, submit interest letter explaining job qualifications, statement of teaching and research interests, curriculum vitae, and three reference letters by November 3, 2003 to: Marketing/International Business Search, University of Puget Sound, Campus Mail Box 1007, Tacoma, WA 98416-1007. An equal opportunity, affirmative action educator/employer.

Beverly Smith
Employment and Training Manager
Human Resources
University of Puget Sound
1500 North Warner #1064
Tacoma, Washington 98416-1064

(253) 879-3461
(253) 879-2839 (FAX)

<http://www.ups.edu/humanresources>