Dear AIB Colleagues,

We are posting this message to let you know that the AIB Board is monitoring the situation in Istanbul very carefully, and we will advise you if there is any change to our plans for the annual meeting there in early July. Several AIB members are there living in Istanbul, and members of the Secretariat will be going to the city before the meeting. There do not appear to be any specific threats to foreign visitors to Istanbul at this time. If there is any protest activity at the time of our meetings, the AIB Board will ensure that everyone receives current information about any place in the city that should be avoided. We will keep you posted on this webpage.
